

SOCIAL WORKER FOR PITCAIRN ISLAND

The Pitcairn Islands Government is seeking an experienced Social Worker fill the Role of Family & Community Advisor (FCA) on UK's smallest Overseas Territory.

Pitcairn Island is located in the Eastern South Pacific, approximately 500kms from the Gambier Islands of French Polynesia. With a land mass of just 4.5km² the Island is home for approximately 50 permanent residents and 10 additional professionals bringing the total population to around 60

Candidates for the position should be a registered Social Worker in Australia, New Zealand or the UK. Must have good relevant experience in child safety and elderly care and be confident to work in a small and isolated community. The appointment is expected to be for one year commencing in late February 2018. The role would include the accompaniment of a partner but the GPI is unable to accept dependent children on the Island.

The position offers a competitive package including the use of a newly built two bedroom house, exclusive use of a quad bike and travel to and from the Island. The FCA also has access to the internet, video conferencing facilities, a NZ linked phone system.
